Description

This is a wonderful Georgian silver salver. Super cast edge decoration, very crisp for its age. Fully marked to the back London 1819 Joseph Craddock & William Ker who set up business in Newcastle Upon Tyne. The crest in the middle is of a pair of wings and star, the nearest match I have found is the Colman family. On the base is a great assay scrape, see picture 5, not easy to photograph! Great colour and patination commensurate with age. Diameter 23 cm Depth 3.5 cm Weight 17.32 ozs
