Description

A fine George the 1st period dresser base Circa 1720, attributed to the workshops of Lancashire and Staffordshire. The dresser is constructed from oak and has a very architectural design, with a double arch frontage and three silhouette baluster supports. Above are six drawers mostly all having the original handles and escutcheons and locks, with the bottom left and right drawers having similar period replacement brassware. The single boarded sides have a finely fretwork design along the bottoms and the top has a two plank construction. At some stage there has been a break in one of the back legs and some large wooden braces have been added for extra strength. The dresser is in excellent condition and has a superb colour and patination and is very solid.
