Description

An excellent antique Edwardian writing table in mahogany. This was made in England by Maple & Co, it dates from around 1900-1910. The quality is superb, the mahogany has beautiful grain patterns and has banding of satin wood inlay. There are original brass handles and casters, also of lovely quality. There is a single drawer on the left and a double drawer on the right, all with fine hand cut dovetailed joints. The legs are tapered & have curved brackets at the tops. The inset leather top is hand coloured and gold tooled, we have recently had this completely re-polished to a very high standard; the condition is excellent for its age.
