Description

A lovely folding teak chair dating from the early 20th Century. Chairs of this style were often used aboard boats and so are referred to as Steamer Chairs. It is a comfortable chair with a shaped slatted seat, a curved back and nicely shaped arms. It is in good condition for its age and is a good quality piece. It is well made and folds smoothly. It has a nicely worn and aged patina with signs of use, some light marks and natural wear to the finish but nothing detrimental. There has been a repair to an old break below one arm (see photo) but the chair is strong and sturdy. The chair stands approximately 37 1/2" (95cm) high and it is 22 1/2" (57cm) wide across the arms. It is approximately 29" (74cm) deep and the seat is 19" (48cm) wide and 16" (41cm) high. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
