Description

George II period, mahogany pad foot triangular corner table, console, cum folder tea table, Circa 1750. This period console table, features an attractively figured solid triangular mahogany top with squared corner and edges. The top folds out to reveal a well figured squarish top. Supported by a gateleg rear/or front leg. Plain frieze all around. Raised on turned tapered legs on off-set pad feet. Suitable as corner table or console table. The top and leaf are both constructed from a single piece of mahogany timber. A high quality table, made from good early mahogany, considerable heavy, odd marks and blemishes, but very much ready for use. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 69.5 cm (27.5") tall, 93 cm (36.5") wide, 49 cm (19") deep unfolded, and 92 cm (36") deep folded out. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally very sound and sturdy. Good colour, pleasing patina, and a good polish. Some odd minor odd marks and blemishes. Good working order. Ready for use. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear,...
