Description

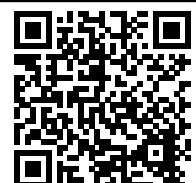

This is a tall antique hall stand. An English, carved oak stick and coat rack in Gothic revival taste, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880. Distinctive Gothic revival carvings decorate this striking stand. Displays a desirable aged patina and presented in good order. Select oak with fine grain interest and deep caramel hues beneath a wax polish finish. Original, quality bevelled mirror plate with desirable light foxing and clear reflection. Impressive upstand with enthusiastic carvings a visual delight. Crown moulding above a carved frieze, adorned with foliate patera and diamond lozenges. Decorative borders abound, further graced by elegant shaped wings. Dressed with six, prominent turned coat and hat rails of robust form. Glove box drawer emboldened with a superb Green Man masque. Turned baluster supports with square sections to rear, surrounding a useful pair of stick stands. Removable drip trays to under tier provides drainage for umbrellas. Standing upon a pair of broad bun feet to the fore. This is a fascinating antique hall stand, distinguished with ornate Gothic revival taste and offering practical features for the entrance hall. Solid joints and construction, deli...
