Description

This is a large antique fireside log bin. An English, coopered oak and pine fire keep or coffee table, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850. Delightfully generous proportion and coopered appeal. Displays a desirable aged patina commensurate with age. Oak staves show mellow caramel hues and fine grain interest. Pleasingly weathered bounding with bonded rivets for strength. Profile narrows gracefully to the Victorian pine lid. Clean interior attractive for living room storage. Pair of iron handles aids ease of carriage. This is a fascinating antique fireside log bin, with wonderful country house appeal and generously sized. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the living room.
