Description

This pair of chandeliers have a moulded brass ring to the top which is decorated with arms; these hold the decorative swags and prisms. Please note that this piece has swags, lustres and prisms which have chips. Once the piece is hung, these wouldn't be noticed and is very common with lustres. It is a very nice looking, well balanced chandelier but not perfect due to the chips, this is reflected in the price. The lustres are suspended from brass rings, finished with long glass balls. The height without the chain on the top is 40 cm. The chandelier with the arms holding the swags is 22 cm. These chandeliers have large bayonet bulb holders B 22. C 1920 - C 1940 st 3238
