Description

An antique arts and crafts elm and rush seated elbow chair. The antique arts and crafts elbow chair has an elm frame, with a decorative slatted backrest and shaped open arms. The chair has a rush woven seat, raised on four tapering legs, with spindle supports. An interesting piece of antique furniture with plenty of character. Item Ref; M-3756 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 88cm / Width – 51cm / Depth – 58.5cm / Seat Height - 40cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good delicate antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks to the seat (pictured), and fading to the arms (pictured). The antique arts and crafts elbow chair remains structurally intact, however, there is movement in the joints and is not suitable for everyday use. Overall, a good, delicate example. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
