

SA886105

Exeter Antique Victorian Sterling Silver Teapot

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA886105*Date of manufacture: 1850

Description

An Exeter hallmarked antique Victorian sterling silver teapot which has a round shaped body with pretty flower and leaf decoration, a hinged silver lid with a particularly attractive flower finial and resting on a slightly raised circular foot. This fine silver teapot would be practical to use and would make a desirable addition to an Exeter silver collection. It weighs 24.3 troy ounces (756 grams). This silver teapot has been registered with the Government's website to conform to the new rules concerning ivory. The submission reference number is : 392RCE75. Height: 14 cms (5.5") Length (from handle to spout): 26.5 cms (10.4") Diameter of body: 16 cms (6.3") It was hallmarked in Exeter for 1855 by James & Josiah Williams and remains in excellent condition. Complimentary postage is included within the price of this silver teapot.

Internal Ref: 5733

Seller Details

S & A Marsh

London United Kingdom

Tel: 07773 644605

International Tel: +44 7773 644605

