Description

Absolutely spectacular Art Deco mantel clock with a wonderful cloud shape case with the movement marked GB a clockmaker Gustav Becker dating the clock to 1932. Exotic veneers of Coromandel acts as the template for the dial while the main case is stained veneered oak. Square and very bold chrome numerals and decorative accents across the case. We've had this clock fully serviced by qualified horologist so comes to you with movement in fully functioning condition that chimes every half and full hour. The clock runs for approximately 8 days on one winding. Comes with winding key. FREE UK MAINLAND DELIVERY. Bio Gustav Becker died on 14 September 1885. The brand was created in 1899, and in 1930 it merged with Junghans, a large clockmaker in Schramberg, in southwestern Germany. After WW2, the Gustav Becker factory's location was transferred from Germany to Poland thereafter the clock production there ceased. Junghans continued to exist in West Germany, but clocks bearing the Becker brand were no longer produced.
