Description

Huge Moorcroft style pomegranate jardiniere on a blue background. Dating from the 1930's I have no idea who the maker of this piece was but it is definitely NOT Moorcroft. The decoration is good and the colours are good but it is not quite up to the standards of Moorcroft plus it is the wrong clay. There is all over crazing as you would expect but no damage and no repairs. Unmarked. Very decorative and useful. Would look great with a large plant in it. SIZE; 14 1/2" diameter by 11" high CIRCA; 1930
