Description

Victorian inlaid walnut Davenport desk This Victorian inlaid walnut Davenport desk was made circa 1870. Smothered in fine marquetry to all surfaces including the rear as well as the sloping lid, this Davenport desk is not only the best colour you could hope for, but also highly decorative and a real showpiece. The slope lifts to reveal a maple lined interior that is fitted 3 working drawers and 3 faux drawers. There is a brass stay that lifts into place so that the lid can be left up at different angles. It has a brass gallery To the side there is a pen drawer that is cleverly disguised that pulls out and swings on a hinge To each side of the kneehole are a pair of solid carved tapering columns, with turned feet and castors under. Imagine how much pleasure and joy ownership of this Davenport will give you, as well as the pride you will get as you show it off to family and friends. 61cms wide 24ins 61cms deep 24ins 84cms high 33ins All dimensions are approximate, whilst we take as much care as possible, we can be marginally out.
