Description

A beautifully worked and highly detailed Easter SAMPLER by Hannah Noble and dated 1801. Worked entirely in tiny cross stitch the subject relates to the first day of the three days of Easter that start with Maundy Thursday when it was customary for a mass to include the Lord's Prayer; the Apostles Creed and the Grace. The Ten Commandments are also included in this sample, whilst the entire text is enclosed by a freehand border of white and red heart-shaped flowers. 50 x 41cms including the frame.
