Description

A early 20th century walnut bedside cabinets. The cabinet's are French and date to around 1910. They're made with superb quality showing in the patterned walnut veneer's, dovetailed drawers and a beautiful cut of marble for the top. Both cabinets are in very good overall condition with some slight age related wear, the marble tops are both original and in good order with slight wear one having a slight chip on one edge but nothing that detracts from the cabinets. A great pair that will stand out in any setting. height - 83cm depth - 38cm width - 41cm
