Description

Gents 1950s Lanco wrist watch. The watch has a signed 15-jewel hand-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement is signed Lanco, a brand name launched by Langendorf in the late 1950s. The watch measures 33mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the lugs. The main body of the case is plated while the case back is stainless steel. The case is in good condition with just a little rubbing and marking, nothing serious at all. The lens is in good condition. The dial has its original hands, subsidiary seconds dial and outer minute markers. The actual dial appears to have been re-finished some time ago, there is some light marking but not too detrimental. The watch has a vintage leather strap although probably not the original. The watch comes in the Lanco presentation box.
