Description

Magnificent large-scale C19th English William IV period carved walnut rectangular-framed centre-piece countryhouse stool . High-quality carved frame rectangular stool with deeply-carved friezes featuring flower-head , leaf and acorn details . The friezes centred with carved and shaped vacant baronial shields and rococo c-scrolls. The bold scroll-carved corners above shapely cabriole supports terminating with carved claw feet raised on original brass castors and wheels . The whole with a rich colour and patina to the original polished surface which has been cleaned and waxed in our workshops. The drop-in frame seat having been traditionally re-upholstered and covered with a striking damask pattern material , with a gently-domed edge to the cushion and a flattened profile centre. In excellent original condition with no damage, losses or repairs. Superb free-standing decorative statement centre-piece , reception room 'table' or bedroom stool. H 18" W 44" D 26" England c.1835
