Description

A Victorian Royal Crown Derby fine bone china cabinet cup and saucer with a deep red enamel ground reserving a very stylish geometric type frieze in white with gilt detailing. There are raised moulded stylised leaves that are also picked out in gilt. A shaped double scrolled gilt handle with acanthus leaf thumb rest. Factory marks to the base and date cypher for 1893 and the registered design number 161759. The saucer measures 13.3cm (5 1/4") wide and 2cm (7/8") high. The cup measures 5cm (2") high and 8.2cm (3 1/4") rim to rim. In excellent condition with just a couple of really tiny nicks to the enamel.
