Description

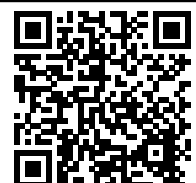

A pretty Edwardian Royal Crown Derby fine bone china tea cup and saucer painted in pattern number 7347 with a cobalt blue ground reserving large shaped section of white ground with ornate gilt detailing with bold scrolls and arabesques with raised gilt beading and framing a delicate dotted background with small scrolls to the area just below the rims. Fancy gilt floral garlands painted below the blue ground and a gilt dentil rim inside the cup. An attractive shaped handle with acanthus leaf moulded thumb rest. Factory marks to the base, date cypher for 1906 and the pattern number painted also on the underside of the cup. Also marked for the retailer W. Litherland & Co. Liverpool. The saucer measures 14.3cm (5 5/8") wide and 2cm (3/4") high. The cup measures 5.3cm (2 1/16") high and 9cm (3 1/2") rim to rim. In excellent condition with very minor wear to the gilding near centre of the saucer.
