HONORE CAVAROC (1856 - 1930) A beautiful signed & dated 1888 impressionist oil on panel by Honore Cavaroc a French painter who was born in Lyons and exhibited at the Salons in Lyons and Paris from 1872 onwards winning numerous awards. This work depicts a beautiful girl on a summers day with a parasol by the banks of a river. Title: "Elegant girl with parasol by a river" Signature: Signed & dated 1888 lower left Provenance: Private french collection Medium: Oil on panel Size: c. 16 x 13 inches unframed Condition: Very nice condition for age - some small marks Painter, pastellist. Portraits, landscapes, still-lives, flowers. Cavaroc studied at the École des Beaux-Arts in Lyons in 1866, and also with Jean Seignemartin. His paintings were composed of juxtapositions of colours, which accentuated his back-lit subjects in delicate greys and purples. He painted his last works when he was more than 80, including The Gaiety of the Fields in Montmoyen (Côte d'Or) and Entry of the Park in Oullins (Rhône). Cavaroc first exhibited at the Salon in Lyons in 1872. He was a member of the Salon des Artistes...
