Description

A good near pair of large silver plated hot water dishes bearing the pineapple stamp for Dan Holy of Sheffield. With removable top plates revealing an inserted grill. Standing on four highly decorated legs and with two very robust handles. Both are of an identical external design, however one interior is tinned with the grill attached, while the other is silvered with a removable grill. The condition is very good overall with no dents or plate loss. With slight scratching to the plate tops due to age and use. Total weight approx 5kg. Height approx 9cm. Total span approx 32.5cm. Plate diameter approx 25.5cm.
