Description

A very good early 18th Century Oak Dresser Base of the most delicious rich warm colour and patina. The top drawers with fruit wood banding, the fielded panelled doors flanked with additional applied slender panels with nicely shaped lip mould edges matching that of the drawer fronts. The bottom drawer is a dummy, allowing more cupboard space. The top with inverted corners, all boards and feet are original and the ends are also panelled. The original drawer linings are made in Oak.
