Description

A very attractive mid-19th century gilt bronze French Rococo style mirror. The mirror retains its original plate which has some spotting in places commensurate with age. The mirror also retains its original back board and fittings, and has a later additional fitting to ensure the security of the plate. The original hanging ring remains in place which boasts a delicate foliate design. The frame remains in an excellent condition throughout. The mirror is substantial and of lovely proportions, suitable for a smaller room.
