Description

Bronze lamp circa 1875. A good and large bronze lamp of outstanding quality, and condition formed as a cherub supporting a cornucopia issuing leaves. The lamp stands on a fluted marble base with an ormolu collar, and feet. The whole piece is in absolutely fantastic condition with no additions, losses, or abrasions. The lamp is displayed on an onyx column which can be purchased separately. To comply with current safety regulation this lamp has been rewired with braided cord and has been P A T tested.
