Description

A Charming Mahogany Pembroke Table. A solid Mahogany Pembroke table. This is a lovely example of a Victorian solid Mahogany dining table believed to be made around C1860 featuring a lovely lightly faded rich Mahogany colour with original patina and charm. We have just sympathetically restored, cleaned and waxed this lovely table giving a beautiful natural shine whilst enhancing the original French polished finish. This table has a very small form yet is versatile from having 2 drop-down leaves managing to comfortably seat 4 people and be used as a dining room, breakfast table, occasional/hall table or even a desk. This table features a single drawer to the one side and a dummy drawer to the other side both complete with polished brass original knobs. The drawer is dovetailed constructed, is smoothly operating and clean inside. The table has 4 finger leaf supports and stands which work smoothly and the table stands on 4 typical mid victorian turned legs. The table is solid with no loose joints or woodworm and the solid mahogany tops are flat and not twisted. The table does have a historic split to the leaf, which has been supported by inset wooden butterfly cleats an...
