Description

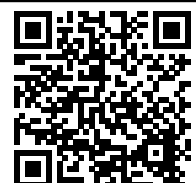

A near pair of early 20th century wingback armchairs, both neatly upholstered in a contemporary light green, white and gold fabric. One armchair has walnut legs and is of squarer form, the other has mahogany legs and of a more curved form. Both chairs show signs of wear to the legs commensurate with age, otherwise they remain in a very good condition with solid frames and contemporary upholstery. The upholstery itself has been professionally cleaned and remains in a good condition throughout. A good solid pair of wingback armchairs.
