Description

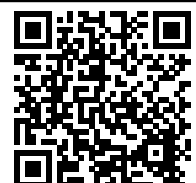

Large French Inglenook Fire Grate on Andirons This is a Very Heavy and Large Set, they will need to be set in the largest of fireplaces. The Andirons often known as Chenets come from Brittany, they are set on large scroll feet with a Fleur des Lys Coronet at the top, the grate has a dip in the centre for logs with guard spikes around the back and sides, it is removable from the andirons. This is a very unusual set, and they come with a matching shovel, no doubt part of the original set. The Andirons are 36" high, 47" wide at the front and 31" deep.
