Description

An impressive 20th century antique oak extending refectory table in the 17th century style. The antique oak refectory table has a solid four plank oak top, with two extendable parts to either side. The antique oak refectory table is raised on four turned pillars with a 'H' stretcher support. A particularly good, large refectory table. The top can be removed for ease of transport. Item Ref; M-3839 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 78cm / Width - 168cm / Depth - 106.5cm / Extended Width - 244.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, stains, scratches and fading to the surface top (pictured). The antique oak refectory table remains structurally solid and sound, with the extendable mechanism working well. Overall, a very impressive antique dining table. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item.
