Description

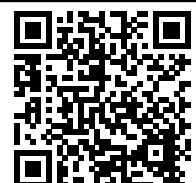

A charming 18th century antique oak settle or bench of small proportions. The antique oak settle has a three panel backrest, with shaped open arms. The 18th century oak settle has a tapestry style cushion to the seat, raised on two front cabriole shaped legs, and two square straight legs to the back, with turned stretcher supports. A particularly pleasing example. Item Ref; M-3843 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 101.5cm / Width – 114cm / Depth – 65cm / Seat Height - 47.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related scratches and marks to the backrest (pictured) and base (pictured). There are some age-related fading to the arms (pictured). The antique oak settle remains structurally solid and sound. Overall, a great example of an 18th century settle, of small proportions. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home!
