

SA890083

Chippendale Mahogany Longcase Clock (long case)

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA890083*Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Dimensions

Height = 232 cm (91.3")

Description

A Chippendale period mahogany longcase clock by Jonathan Blake Fulham, the pagoda shaped top flanked by brass ball and spire finials and a central sound fret, the arched top door flanked with fluted columns and brass stop fluting all above a long arched top well figured trunk door, the well figured base raised on shaped bracket feet united by a conforming apron, The two train, hour striking, 8-day movement with strike/silent to the arch, a subsidiary seconds dial, a calendar aperture above the VI, matted dial centre, an engraved crescent plaque with the makers name "Jon:n Blake Fulham" and ormolu Rococo dolphin spandrels. Circa 1770 Price: £9,750-00p. Lit: G H Baillie "Watchmakers and Clockmakers of the World" lists Blake, Jonathan, Fulham as working from 1758 to 1808. F J Britten "Old Clocks & Watches and their makers" lists Blake, Jonathan, Fulham recorded as making a watch in 1784. See page 614, fig 836 for this model of clock. Both these entries support the date of the clock to Circa 1765-1770 Height: 91.25", 232 cm

Internal Ref: 10973

Seller Details

W.R. Harvey & Co. (Antiques) Ltd

86 Corn Street Witney Oxfordshire OX28 6BU United Kingdom

Tel: 01993 706501

International Tel: +44 1993 706501