Description

A fine George III mahogany bow-fronted sideboard. Raised on square tapered legs with spade toes and inlaid with ebony and boxwood stringing. The frieze has a cupboard to the left, a cellarette drawer to the right and a slim central drawer, all retaining their original handles and working locks. The one piece top is of a well selected piece of mahogany and the whole is very good quality and in very good original condition and retains a good waxed patina and faded colour. 910mm high, 1300mm wide and 600mm deep. English. Circa 1810.
