Description

No: 10968 An extremely rare and unusual early 19th-century Mahogany Library Folio or Chart Table with a gilt tooled leather lined easel top and removable book rest ledge over one frieze drawer raised on square section legs having X-section end stretchers and with large inset castors. Circa 1825 Price: £9,500-00p. Height: 29.5", 75 cms / Width: 58", 147.3 cms / Depth: 31", 79 cms. This table was made for a specific use and location. It has always been known as the Chart table by the previous owner's family who are all descended from a long line of seafarers. The size and easel top would lend its design to examining admiralty charts.
