Description

Three gorgeous faceted citrines make up this very wearable brooch from the 19th century. The stones are crisp and clear, in lovely condition; the central one is more golden, flanked by two paler straw coloured gems, all of them very twinkly and light reflective. Citrine is a November birthstone. The brooch, rendered in gilt metal, is in very good vintage condition and fixes with a simple C clasp. Size: Approx 4 x 1.5cm. Weight: 5.0g. FREE INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING - if you are based in the UK you can take £10 off the price, so £52 total.
