Description

A beautifully painted vase depicting temples in a rocky landscape by the Imperial Household artist Makuzu Kozan . Makuzu Kozan is considered the finest artist in porcelain of the Meiji period and the Imperial favourite , the quality of this vase shows him at his best , quite amazing considering he used wood burning kilns which are difficult to regulate . A stunning vase of unusual colour and subject . Signed with the Makuzu Kozan seal for 1905-1910.
