Description

George I style walnut armchair This George I style walnut armchair was made circa 1880. The highly skilled chair-maker took one of the best designs of the Georgian period to replicate one of the finest examples that would have been in a stately home or Royal household. It has the shaped splat back with shepherd's crook arms that finish at the drop in upholstered seat. The shaped frame with a carved mask at the centre of the apron. The well-proportioned front cabriole legs with the beautifully hand carved shell at the knee running down to the claw and ball feet. This wonderful armchair can be used as a general-purpose armchair or as a splendid desk chair. Imagine having this in your home and the pleasure you will get from owning such a high-end example. 58cms wide across the arms 23ins 53cms deep 21ins 95cms high 37 1/2ins 47cms seat height 18 1/2ins All dimensions are approximate, whilst we take as much care as possible, we can be marginally out.
