Description

An unusual 19th century antique oak linen press cupboard. The antique oak linen press has two blind panel cupboard doors to the top, that open to reveal four sliding tray drawers. The base has an arrangement of two short over three long drawers, each with drop handles. Raised on bracket feet. The antique oak linen press separates into two parts at the mid section for ease of transport. Item Ref; M-3171 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 198.5cm / Width – 92cm / Depth – 51cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and scratches to the front, and shrinkage to the sides (pictured). There is minor evidence of historic woodworm, however this is now long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. The antique oak linen press remains structurally solid and sound, with the drawers running well. Separates into two parts for ease of movement. Overall, a rather good example. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home!
