Description

This is a super antique Victorian sterling silver 5 piece cruet set consisting of a pair of peppers, a pair of salts with spoons and a mustard with spoon. The pair of peppers measure 3 1/4" (8 cms) tall, the salts are 3" (7.5 cms) across including handles and the mustard is 3 1/4" (8 cms) across including the handle and they all have matching hallmarks for Chester 1892 with the silversmiths marks for John & William F. Deakin. The mustard spoon is Birmingham 1892 and the salt spoons are marked London 1898. The mustard and salts are gilded inside and the whole lot is in excellent condition and perfectly usable and comes with a certificate of authenticity. Free worldwide fully insured shipping
