Description

An Edwardian wingback armchair, circa 1900-1910, with nicely shaped back and scroll arms with buttoning to the inner sides, the sprung seat with a serpentine shaped front and raised on tapering mahogany supports terminating in original brass castors. A very nice quality chair in good structural order, it simply needs new top covers. I can arrange re-covering with my upholsterer and supply fabrics - please contact me for details. 107cm high, 71cm wide max outside arm to outside arm, total depth 83cm. The seat measures 65cm wide at the front and 53cm deep.
