Description

A stunning vintage nine-carat gold hinged bangle with beautifully detailed engine-turned decoration all the way around and seven deep magenta rubies in star engraved settings along the front. The bracelet is overall in excellent vintage condition; there is a very tiny dink on the narrow top/bottom edge. The hinge and clasp are in good working order and there is a safety chain for additional security. Fully hallmarked for nine-carat gold, Chester 1961, and bearing the C&F mark denoting Cropp & Farr - a London-based jewellery company which was founded in 1917 and went on to make a name for themselves among collectors thanks to the exceptional quality of their pieces. Textured gold and bright gemstones are typical of their eyecatching designs. Interesting factoid: Chester Assay Office closed its doors in August 1962 and as the hallmarking year at Chester ran from 1 July to 30 June this is among the last pieces to be stamped with a Chester hallmark. Size: Approximately 2cm wide. Weight: 34.4g. Internal circumference: Approx 6¾ inches. FREE INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING!
