Description

A good quality antique oak metamorphic writing desk in the liberty style. The antique metamorphic writing desk has a rectangular top with a moulded edge and leather inset to the centre. The leather writing surface slides forwards to reveal a rising stationery compartment at the back, consisting of letter racks and inkwells. The metamorphic writing desk has a single fitted drawer to the front with decorative brass handles. Raised on four square tapering legs. A good quality piece of antique furniture, formerly used in Fishbourne Post Office. Item Ref; M-3932 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 76.5cm / Width – 71cm / Depth – 50cm / Legroom - 62.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related scratches to the sides (pictured), and a minor split to the surface top (pictured). The antique metamorphic writing desk remains structurally solid and sound, with the mechanism working well. Overall, a neat example. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos ...
