Description

Architectural Engraving of The Choregic monument of Lysicrates which is one of the earliest in Greece to use the Corinthian architectural order. The frieze running around the top of the monument show Dionysos and his satyrs attacking some pirates who had kidnapped him. The defeated pirates jumped overboard and turned into dolphins. I do have others if interested in any more. Please look at my other items as I do have others for sale. FREE shipping Many thanks Karen 07866 475069
