Description

AN VERY TALL ELEGANT DISPLAY TOP DRESSER, FROM FRANCE, DATING FROM THE TURN OF THE CENTURY. It has an attractive cornice, and the top section has two glazed doors with an unusual shaped trim around the glass. The original lock and key are in good working order. The French external hinges allow the doors to open fully. Inside there are two shelves. The upper section is supported and stood on two elegant turned columns. The base section has two drawers both with old metal knob handles, above a cupboard with a single shelf inside. The cupboard doors have the panels to match the trim on the upper glazed doors. The dresser is stood on wide flat bun feet. An impressive piece of furniture, which has recently been stripped exposing a very clean and tidy bare wood. It is not ready for waxing or painting. The top and base separate for access and delivery. Height 90", Base Height 37.5", Width 49", Depth 21"
