Description

We are delighted to offer this fabulous solid silver card case made by Edward Smith in Birmingham, 1862. This card case is a fine example of fine Victorian craftsmanship and hand engraving. The case has been fully embellished on the exterior with acanthus leaf scrolls from edge to edge with wonderful proportions. The form of the card case is also elegantly made with a scrolled border design. The case is fully hallmarked on the inside with full English hallmarks. A fine example of a Victorian solid silver card case that may also be used practically with modern business/credit cards. A wonderful way to store and carry your essentials with inimitable style and prestige. SIZE Size (mm) L:95mm W:65mm Size (inches) L:3.74 W:2.55 Weight: 68 grams (2.4 oz) CONDITION Good Condition - The card case is in good antique condition with no major damage or issues. Some small dents and nicks are present on the corners due to the card case being over 150 years old (photographed in the last image). We aim to overemphasize and state these issues to avoid disappointment in person and thus please rest assured they are not significant and often look further impressive in pers...
