Description

A very unusual Anglo-Indian bureau made from elm wood in excellent condition with only marks/ scuffs in line with age and use. The intricacy of the carving to the fall front and drawer is the work of a true craftsman and is simply stunning. It's fall front opens to an interior that will accommodate all your office supplies with its fitted pigeon holes, shelves and drawers. This is a stunning bureau with wonderful colouring and amazing patination, the perfect finishing touch to any study or office. Internal Reference: SAI1952
