Description

An early C19th, country Windsor chair in elm and ash. Spindle back with bent hoop back rail. Over a thick very well figured solid elm saddled seat. With socketed splayed ring turned legs, with strumbled paint finish. Supported by a turned H-stretcher. A particular charming chair, which oozes character. Some flaws, but still very useable. Dimensions: This chair measures approximately 87 cm (34") tall, 44.5 cm (17.5") wide, and 43 cm (17") deep. The seat height measures approximately 45 cm (18"). Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This chair is in a reasonable condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally sound enough for use. There are several marks, blemishes and signs of use. A chip to the edge of the seat. The back hoop rail has broken joints in the sockets, and these joints are a little loose. The tops of the central spindles have been nailed into the top rail. The back is reasonable sturdy and useable, but there is some movement due to the loose joints. There are some old nail holes through the bottom of the hoop socket joints. The legs are all sturdy. Good colour, polish and patina. Ready for use, or the back cou...
