Description

A very good example of a mid 18thc Blue & White Delft Plate decorated with flowers in a bowl and also with a border of various flowers. It was made in Ireland around 1760-70, probably at the Dublin World's End Pottery and particularly pleasing is the octagonal shape....in excellent condition with no restoration or cracks....just very minor "nibbling" to a few places on the edge as can be seen in the pictures. Irish. C1760-70.
