Description

Antique oak kitchen dresser This Antique oak kitchen dresser was made circa 1820. It is a rare design especially with the Gothic influence with the pointed arches to the doors. Made in 2 parts which makes moving to and around your home simple. The top section has the arched panel doors to each side of the glazed double door cabinet, all fitted with shelves. The base with cupboard doors to each end, a bank of drawers down the centre and a further 3 drawers along the top, all with the original turned wooden knob handles. The drawers and cupboards cross-banded in fruitwood and the keyhole escutcheons of a teardrop shape made of bone. A dresser of this type is the forerunner of a modern fitted kitchen, and was the focal point in the 19th century kitchen. 209cms high 82ins 156cms wide 61 1/2ins 44cms deep 17 1/2ins All dimensions are approximate, whilst we take as much care as possible, we can be marginally out.
