Description

A wonderful 19th century campaign secretaire cabinet. Warm mahogany colour with unusual twist detail to the four corner uprights and original brass carrying handles to the sides. Unusually opening on both sides, the fall front reveals typical secretaire features all in very good original condition, and to the rear there are several further storage compartments behind a detachable back panel. The key is still present which opens both sides. An emblem to front, possibly a later addition, depicting an elephant surmounted by a castle. Height 63cm. Width 65.5cm. Depth 33.5cm
