Description

Victorian shaped rosewood centre table This Victorian shaped rosewood centre table Was made circa 1840, just at the start of Queen Victoria's reign. The shaped circular rosewood top with a shaped apron running around under the top. The table has a column that is concave to the 3 surfaces and with the well carved cabriole legs coming off this, with rolling castors under. It is a size that would make it just right as a centre table or in a bay. In fact, it could stand in many areas of the home, even a fine small dining table. Imagine the pleasure of ownership this Victorian shaped rosewood centre table will give you. 76cms diameter 30ins 71cms high 28ins All dimensions are approximate, whilst we take as much care as possible, we can be marginally out.
