Description

Super quality and well proportioned Flemish brass four branch chandelier with a double phoenix and griffins holding the four branches, circa 1930. Lovely elegant style with this uncluttered chandelier and certainly works beautifully with the four holophane glass shades. Original brass linking chain and also the adjustable ceiling rose (so you can hide your wire connections), all in really good condition. The chandelier has been lightly cleaned and buffed, giving it a lovely mellow glow, not a bright "brassy" finish. Fully re wired and ready to hang and connect. Measuring: 36 inches or 91.5 cm total height including the linking chain and ceiling rose. 29 inches or 74 cm width

Internal Ref: Kkm5
